

Stories in Module III

81. Wonderful Boys, these!
82. I. Ponus entertains a God.
83. II. By Hermes' gift he befools Death,
84. III. who has to make him immortal.
85. I. A hungry Bear meets a crafty Fox;
86. II. by whose Advice he loses his Tail.
87. I. Fond of the fine Arts;
88. II. for which he saves another man's Life.
89. Dorias, the Patriot.
90. I. Solon and Thales speak of Families.
91. II. An unkind Argument, if true.
92. I. Hermes, in disguise, visits Dives' House,
93. II. and then stops at that of a poor Man,
94. III. who selects two of three Blessings offered,
95. IV. while Hermes adds the third.
96. V. Dives repents and sends after Hermes:
97. VI. whose Gifts are foolishly wasted.
98. I. Diotimus sends a Hare to his Friend.
99. II. In the servant's Journey it becomes a Cat;
100. III. which is presented to Callicles.

101. IV. Arrived at home, it is a Hare.
102. V. He won't try again.
103. The law Courts of Athens.
104. The Story of Tell.
105. (continued...)
106. (continued...)
107. I. The King consults his wise Men.
108. II. a ludicrous End of their Speculations.
109. I. A wonderful old Man.
110. II. I can tell a stranger Story.
111. I. The wounded Enemies.
112. II. Heaping Coals of Fire.

THE BATTLE OF MARATHON.
B.C. 490.

113. I. Ionian Revolt. Burning of Sardis.
114. II. Anger of Darius.
115. III. Instigations of Hippias. Persian Threat.
116. IV. The King determines to enslave Eretria and Athens.
117. V. Eretria is crushed.
118. VI. The Persians land at Marathon.

119. VII. History of Miltiades.

120. VIII. The Athenians appeal to Sparta.