

Stories in Module IV

121. IX. Superstition of Sparta.
122. X. Gallant Conduct of Plataea.
123. XI. Divided Counsels. The Council of War will not fight.
124. XII. Miltiades appeals to the Polemarch.
125. XIII. He agrees to fight.
126. XIV. The Order of Battle.
127. XV. The Charge.
128. XVI. Victory of Wings. Defeat of Centre. Final Victory.
129. XVII. Fight at the Ships.
130. XVIII. The Persians sail around to Phalerum. Signal of the Shield.
131. XIX. The Spartans come too late, but see the Battlefield.
-
132. I. Entering Manhood, Hercules sees two Women at a Distance.
133. II. They approach. The latter, running ahead, speaks.
134. III. The other states her Case.
135. IV. Vice makes a last Appeal.
136. V. Virtue denounces Vice, and compares their devotees.
137. Gordius receives a wonderful Omen from Zeus.
138. I. Xerxes' approach. His Fleet is shattered by Divine Interference.
139. II. Greek and Persian face each other.

- 140 III. Some are for Retreat. Leonidas will not desert his Post.
141. IV. Xerxes' Scout finds little to report.
142. V. Xerxes perplexed. Demaratus explains the Behavior of the Greeks.
143. VI. The Medes fail to force a Way.
144. VII. The Immortals, under Hydarnes, next make the Attempt,
145. VIII. and are foiled. Xerxes is frightened.
146. IX. Ephialtes brings information of a secret Path,
147. X. by which Hydarnes ascends by night.
148. XI. The Greeks awake to their Doom.
149. XII. Leonidas and Megistias the Prophet choose to die.
150. XIII. Nor will the Thespians go.
151. XIV. The final Onset.
152. XV. Who was bravest?
153. XVI. The Spartans are buried where they fell.
154. XVII. Their Epitaph.
155. I. Let no one mention lost Salamis.
156. II. By a clever Ruse, Solon gets the Law repealed.
157. III. Another Stratagem deceives the Megarians, and recovers the Island.
158. IV. Another Version of the Affair.
159. Menippus, landing in Hades walks off. Charon demands the boat fee. They quarrel.
160. In Hades, Croesus denounces Menippus to Pluto.

161. The Cyclops, Polyphemus, tells his Father, Poseidon, how Ulysses put out his Eye.

162. In Hades, Menippus wants to see the ancient Beauties.

163. Zeus settles a Quarrel between Hercules and Aesculapius at a Banquet of the Gods.