

Legal Notice: By participating in this course, you agree to the following terms. The video lectures, worksheets, tests and other content (collectively, the “Materials”) provided to you constitute the valuable intellectual property of Professor David C. Noe. Professor Noe has spent considerable time and effort developing the Materials. They are protected by United States Copyright and international intellectual property laws. Certain of the materials are in the public domain (e.g., A First Greek Reader by Charles Melville Moss). Professor Noe makes no claim of ownership to those public domain materials. Professor Noe grants you a non-exclusive license to use the Materials for your personal use only as a registered student of the course. You may not make the Materials available to any other person, including online, through social media, or otherwise. If you breach these terms, your license will automatically terminate and you may make no further use of the Materials.
